ORGANIZE A GOOD BOARD.

IF YOU ARE GENERAL AGENT OF THE Columbia Building & Loan Association, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a local branch here. The Columbia is the largest association in the country and is increasing rapidly, its plan offering great satisfaction, both to investor and borrower. Instead of writing to the home office, when a loan is desired, the local advising board, orders the loan, providing the security is ample,
the branch office in Reno for instance, having exactly the same powers as the main branch in Denver. Red tape and delay are thus entirely done away with. The rate of interest is 3 per cent per annum, payable in 72 monthly payments. Mr.
McIntyre will call on our business men in the next few days and it is to be hoped a large local board will be organized. A branch with several hundred shares has just been formed in Winnemucca

ANALYSIS OF THE VOTE.

There are 325 voting members of the U. S. House of Representatives, and all but two either voted or were paired upon the Senate free coinage bill. The full vote (counting the pairs) was 130 Democrats and 23 Republicans for free coinage, and 147 Republicans and 23 Democrats against it.

Of the 23 Democratic votes against us 10 came from New York, 4 from Pennsylvania, 2 from Maryland, 2 from Massachusetts, 2 from New Jersey, 1 from Connecticut, 1 from West Virginia, and 1 from South Carolina.

Of the 23 Republican votes cast for free coinage, Indiana gave us 1, Ohio 1, Arkansas 1, Missouri 1 and Illinois 2, and the remaining 17 came from west of the Missouri river. The entire Kansas delegation of seven voted for free coinage, as did two of the three members from Nebraska. We received the votes of the two Democratic members from California, and all of the coast Republicans except Wilson of Washington, and Vandever and McKenna of California. The treachery of the last two is inexcusable. Vandever four years ago posed as an especial friend of the white metal, and defeated Jo Lynch, of the Los Angeles Herald, one of the ablest and truest silver men on the coast. There is no way of reaching Vandever as (doubtless in anticipation of the home consequences of falling down to Wall street) he retired some time ago from the field as a candidate for re-election. With McKenna the case is different. He was not only pledged to the party platform, but instructed by the Republican State Central Committee of California to vote for free coinage. This he did not do. He was not paired and he either voted against free coinage or was one of the two members of the House who failed to vote. His course will doubtless defeat his re-nomination by the Republican party—if it not be ought to be snowed under at the polls.

The ten States west of the Missouri river are more solidly Republican than are the six New England States, for the former have twenty-two Republican and two Democratic representatives, while the latter have twenty-three Republican and three Democratic representatives. On the question of free coinage, the former cast twenty-one votes for that measure, and three against it, while the twenty-three Republican and three Democratic votes of New England, were solid against it.

The sixteen Southern States have one hundred and two Democratic and nineteen Republican Congressmen. Of these, one Republican (Featherstone of Arkansas,) voted for free coinage, and eighteen Republicans voted against it, while the Democrats (Buck and Stumps, of Maryland, and Alderson, of West Virginia,) voted against it, and ninety-nine Democrats voted for it. Hale, of Maine, announced himself in the Senate in favor of free coinage and then voted against it. Blair, of New Hampshire, spoke in the Senate in favor of free coinage, and voted for it once, but on the final vote was recorded against it. Lend, of Minnesota, did the same thing in the House; so did one of the Illinois members, and one of the Iowa members.

It is obvious from these statistics that the goldists of the East of both parties exerted all of their power to curb the rank and file and prevent a free coinage stampede, and they were measurably successful until they reached that portion of the wild and woolly West, which is "all wool and a yard wide." They failed to exercise any control. When such Republican veterans as John J. Ingalls, Henry M. Teller, Leland Stanford, John P. Jones and William M. Stewart defied the Administration, and such breezy boys as Wolcott, of Colorado, Plumb, of Kansas, and the new Senators from Montana and South Dakota followed their lead, the lash was not long enough to "go around."

In the Democratic party all the pleading and pressure of the South and West was unable to bring the Eastern Democracy up to the free coinage rack, and with Cleveland in their eyes, and Wall-street at their backs, the New York, New England, Pennsylvania and Maryland Democrats stood firm by mono-metallicism. In brief, there seems to have been an unpremeditated and irresistible affiliation of the cotton, wheat and silver interests of the country in insurrection against the money centres. The outcome of this combination remains to be seen. Whatever compromise measure is adopted free coinage must in the end prevail. The question is greater than the politicians of either party and those who get in the way of it will be overwhelmed.

The Republican State Convention in Pennsylvania adopted a free coinage resolution. This was a direct endorsement of Don Cameron's action in the Senate and a rebuke to the Republican members of the House who voted with the goldites. There's no use in talking. The heaven is working, and in less than two years, free and unlimited coinage of silver will be the cry of both of the great National political parties in every State in the Union.

The Chloride Belt is the name of a new paper just started at Candelaria by W. W. Booth. The first number has been received at the Journal office. It is well filled with live general and local news and an array of ads. which bespeak for it journalistic and financial success.

It is now in order for the Democratic press to explain why those members of their party in the House who voted with the free coinage men upon all of the preliminary motions, flew the track when it came to the vital question of keeping the bill out of the hands of the Committee on Coinage. If the thirteen bolting Democrats had stood firm, the bill would have been considered without such reference and would have passed the House. The Journal yields the floor to the gentlemen of the Democratic press for the purpose of explanation.

The decision of the Supreme Court on Wednesday settles the question in regard to the State paying the expenses of the counties which were incurred in the special election in February, 1889. The State will have to pay, and it is probably right in law that it should, although as a matter of even-handed justice the counties whose representatives voted for the lottery scheme ought to foot, not only their own bills, but also those of other counties, which had no hand in entailing such expenses upon the people.

Geissensamer is the name of a Democratic Congressman who was with the free coinage men until the last and decisive vote, when he flopped to the other side. It is reported that he changed his opinion while the Clerk was articulating his name when calling the roll.

A coffin trust is the latest product of commercial enterprise. It promises to be a great undertaking.

House Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—In the House to-day the regular order being demanded, Lodge, of Mass., began the debate upon the National Election bill.

Lodge made an eloquent speech in favor of the bill, and at its close was warmly congratulated by the Republicans.

Hemphill, of S. C., argued that the National Election bill was unconstitutional; that it was not National but sectional. A good deal had been said about the new South but what the country really needed was a new North that will take a view suggested by facts and not by preconceived prejudices and that would not think the Anglo-Saxon in the South always in the wrong, when there was trouble with the African. When the Republicans in the North practiced what they preached, Southern Democrats would receive them with open arms. We, Mr. Hemphill continued, know we must either rule that country, or leave it.

Now, for myself, before the people of the United States and before God, in all reverence I swear, we will not leave. (Applause.) I do not hesitate to say that the colored man has as many rights as I have, but he can not have his rights and mine too, and the law is intended to put him again in control of the South. It is intended to awaken that race prejudice which is fast dying out and intended to bring about again that constant trouble and clash between the two colors in the South, which will retard its growth and be destructive of every principle of human government. Hemphill was loudly applauded by the Democrats as he sat down and nearly all of them pressed forward to congratulate him.

World's Fair Commissioners. Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The first meeting of the National Commissioners to the World's Fair convened at noon. Judge John T. Harris was made temporary chairman.

A committee of twelve on permanent organization was appointed to point out officers and the duties of those who shall fill them, without recommending the nomination of any one. John Boyd Thompson stated that the New York Commissioners had been requested by Depew to say that his name should not be used in connection with the Presidency of the Commission.

The committee on permanent organization are as follows: McKenzy, Kentucky; Ewing, Illinois; McDonald, California; Smalley, Vermont; Cochran, Texas; Videner, Pennsylvania; Goodell, Colorado; Breslin, New York; Martindale, Indiana; Harrison, Minnesota; and Keogh, North Carolina.

The convention then adjourned until to-morrow.

Portland to be Re-Enumerated. Special to the Journal.

PORTLAND, June 26.—In reference to the resolutions adopted last night by the Chamber of Commerce and telegraphed to Senators Mitchell and Dolph demanding a re-enumeration of the people of Portland, East Portland and Albina, the following dispatch was received this afternoon:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26, 1890

T. F. O'BRIEN, President of the Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon.—A competent agent will be sent at once with full authority to correct all errors and secure a correct enumeration.

(Signed): J. N. DOWDY, J. H. MITCHELL.

Probably a Murder. Special to the Journal.

UKIAH, Cal., June 26.—A report reached here to-day that W. S. Ray, of Blue Rock, ninety miles north of here had been murdered. He left home two days ago to drive up some hogs. His friends became alarmed at his long absence and followed him. In a cabin ten miles from Blue Rock they found considerable blood and a quantity of gray hair, resembling Ray's whiskers. Nothing further has been heard. The Sheriff left yesterday to investigate the matter.

Mrs. W. S. Bender left last night to attend the bedside of her ailing brother at Beaumont, Cal.

NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE.

THE NATIONAL ELECTION BILL DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE.

Stage Robbers Arrested—World's Fair Commissioners—Railroad Strikes—Iron Molder Shot.

An Iron Molder Fatally Shot.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Edward Coogan, a molder's apprentice, employed in the Vulcan Iron Works, was shot and instantly killed this morning by James W. Kerr, of the firm of Steiger & Kerr, proprietors of the Occidental Foundry. The shooting was the outgrowth of an assault on C. F. Claussen, a non-union molder. Claussen and Kerr were assaulted by a crowd of strikers on the street, and being worsted, Kerr drew a revolver and fired. The bullet struck young Coogan and he died on the way to the hospital.

The exact circumstances of the tragedy are not known, as Kerr, who surrendered himself into custody, and was given quarters in the hospital department of the City Prison, has so far refused to talk, by the advice of his counsel. Claussen was employed until last Saturday in the Union Iron Works. Steiger and Kerr being short handed applied to the Molders' Association for men and among those transferred to their foundry was Claussen. He had previously been urged to join the strikers.

Claussen made the following statement through his attorney: "I had been threatened yesterday by the strikers and Mr. Kerr saw me safely home last night. He called for me this morning and at the corner of First and Mission streets, just as we were congratulating ourselves on avoiding trouble, we were seized from behind and choked. I was beaten and kicked without mercy. I had a revolver but it was taken from me. Mr. Kerr ran toward his foundry and I followed with a mob at our heels. Mr. Kerr found his office door locked and called for help. The mob crowded around us and then I heard a shot."

Mr. Kerr says he and Claussen were suddenly attacked by 12 or 15 strikers. They seized him by the throat and struck him several blows. He then fired his pistol intending to frighten Coogan, not to kill him. Coogan, Mr. Kerr says, was one of the attacking party and was about 25 feet away when shot. "I think that the attack was premeditated and that it was their intention to kill one or both of us."

The Coast Railroad Convention. Special to the Journal.

SAN JOSE, June 26.—When the Railroad Convention met this morning the Chairman said that nothing could be done until Colonel Fred Crocker came, and an adjournment was taken until 11 o'clock when Colonel Crocker arrived. He said he could give no definite answer to the resolution which had been adopted without consulting with his associates in the Southern Pacific Company. Personally he was in favor of completing the road through the coast counties as soon as possible. Five hundred thousand dollars was but a fraction of the amount needed to build the road as it would certainly cost nearly $5,000,000. What, however, the Southern Pacific Company wanted, he said, was assurance that the investment would pay, the rest was of no consequence. The whole amount of bonds necessary to build the road could be floated in the Eastern market. The Convention adjourned until 1 o'clock.

Senate. Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The House bill for the admission of Wyoming as a State was taken up, and Jones, of Arkansas, addressed the Senate. He declared himself in favor of the admission of Wyoming and all other Territories, except Utah, when they had sufficient population and sufficient wealth to justify the assumption of a State government, but he was unwilling to see Wyoming admitted in the way now proposed, and proceeded to state his reasons why, in his opinion, the passage of the pending bill would be exceedingly unwise. He offered a substitute bill admitting all Territories except Utah.

Reagan also spoke against the woman's suffrage clause of the Constitution and said it tended to make men of women and women of men. Voting will begin on the bill to-morrow.

The Senate then adjourned.

Stage Robber Arrested. Special to the Journal.

NAPA, June 26.—Joseph Morgan and Jas. Berkeley two of the men who robbed the Harbin Springs Stage yesterday morning are now in Jail here. They had all of the watches and nearly all of the money that was taken. Sheriff McKenzie who made the capture last night knows the name of the third robber and it is believed that he will soon be apprehended. These two men admit that they did the work.

The Railroad Strikers. Special to the Journal.

CAIRO, Ill., June 26.—The Committee of the Illinois Central strikers came here and on their orders every freight train between here and Centralia on the Illinois Central was also detached from the train.

The Streeter Incest Case.

In answer to the statement of the Appeal that "facts have come to light which tend to prove the innocence" of convict Streeter now serving a ten years' sentence in the State Prison for incest, the Elko Independent says:

"The word of a man who would debauch his own daughter is entitled to but little credence; hence what 'he' says will carry little weight with the people of Elko county. As to his feeling that he was innocent, it would, perhaps, be nearer the truth, to say that as he had run his daughter, the mother of the child, out of the country as soon as she was able to travel, after the birth of her child, he felt that no evidence could be produced to convict him; and the fact that he was so anxious to be released on bail as soon as he learned that the Sheriff had brought the daughter from Iowa to testify against him, could scarcely be considered evidence of his innocence."

"He was so certain of his ability to prove his innocence that he refused to retain a lawyer," continues the Appeal. Now this seems a little severe on J. W. Dorsey, who so vigorously defended the old man from the time he was arrested until sentence was pronounced against him, and who is considered one of the best lawyers in the State, neither is it complimentary to J. L. Wines, who received a fat fee to aid in the defense; as the Appeal seems to infer that neither of these gentlemen are lawyers.

"As to the statement that 'facts have come to light, which tend to prove his innocence,' we are at a loss to know who are in possession of any such facts, or how they have come to light; and we are of the opinion that a petition for Streeter's pardon would meet with but little favor in Elko county."

Different from Carson.

Hon. Frank G. Newlands returned to Reno on Sunday, and now the query is: "What is he a candidate for?—Senator, Congressman or Governor?"—Carson Tribune.

Does it necessarily follow, because he has returned to his home at Reno, that he is a candidate for anything? This beautiful city has sufficient attractions to induce hundreds of people to reside here without the additional incentive of political aspiration. Reno, in this respect, is different from Carson, whose census enumerator, Tom Tennant, informs the JOURNAL that about nine-tenths of its voting population are candidates for office.

MARRIED.

DEMININGEN—BURNS—In Reno, Nevada, June 26, by the Rev. R. R. Brady, G. H. Demingen, of San Francisco, to Miss Lettie Burns, of Verdi.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELIA A. GORR, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

BREVITIES.

Glenbrook will celebrate on the Fourth. Paint your house with the best mixed paints. Sold by Lange & Schmitt.

Charley Friend, the Carson weather prophet, predicts warm and fair weather. Fourteen tourists passed through Truckee last Wednesday on their way to Lake Tahoe.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for garden hose, garden tools, and agate ware. Largest stock in the city.

Mr. P. Kerwin, of the Gould & Curry, passed through yesterday morning from Arizona, on his return to the Comstock.

Jack Furlong of Carson authorizes the statement that he will run Dobbins 100 yards for $1,000 against any man in the United States.

The JOURNAL has heard it pretty positively asserted that Congressman Bartine is an applicant for the vacant U. S. Judge ship in this District.

Dr. Lee of Carson has received a dispatch from San Francisco that W. W. Bishop has greatly improved and that his recovery is confidently expected.

The box sheet for the "Held by the Enemy" presentation to-morrow night is fast filling up, and those who desire good seats should secure them without loss of time.

The Truckee Lumber Co., says the Republican is making a grand drive of saw logs in the Truckee river. There is plenty of water and a clean drive will be made. There will be nearly 4,000,000 feet of lumber in the drive.

A regular meeting of the Ladies' Guild will be held at the rectory on Saturday the 28th inst. at 2 o'clock P. M. A supper will be given between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock. Price of supper 25 cents. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The transposition of a couple of lines in the University dormitory item yesterday badly discombobulated the sense and phraseology of a sentence—but accidents will sometimes happen in model printing offices as well as in the best regulated families.

According to the Hawthorne Bulletin, the census enumerator in that section has a hard time getting the Pintos to answer questions. The thrifty red men place a coin value on their information and when interrogated by the officer ask, "how much?"

S. S. Sears, Agent at the Pyramid Lake Reservation, passed through Reno yesterday on his way to the Walker Lake Reserve. He says the water at the Pyramid Lake Reservation has receded from the land that was overflowed and that the prospects are favorable for an abundant hay crop.

G. D. Ford, a prominent wool grower, of Esmeralda county, passed through here yesterday morning, on his way to Carson. He says times are improving at the base range. Several new mines have been lately started up and quite a number of mining men from other sections are there looking at prospects. Business is better than it has been and the indications are favorable for a prosperous season.

Capt. C. C. Warner, received yesterday a letter from Major Duost, dated at Fort Grant, Arizona, June 20th. The Major is well pleased with his present surroundings. He feels very much at home at his quarters as this is the third time he has occupied them. The Major says the cavalry of the post is all out scouring the country for Indians which are supposed to be on the warpath, but the indications are that all such rumors are fabrications.

Mrs. Judge King left last evening for San Francisco, where she will remain until sometime in July when her husband will join her and they will proceed to Seattle. A large number of friends assembled at the depot to bid her adieu and there were many sincere regrets expressed at the loss which society would suffer by her departure from our midst. The lady takes with her the heartfelt wishes of all of her friends and acquaintances for a life of unalloyed happiness in her northern home.

Thomas Barnett, the old Reno pioneer, announces in this issue of the JOURNAL that he will commence on the first proximo to sell off his entire stock of clothing, boots, shoes, gents' furnishing goods, etc., without reserve, and regardless of cost. He is going to retire from business and is bound to clear out his stock. He means what he says, as everybody will be convinced by calling around and pricing his goods. He also offers for sale all of his real estate, consisting of a dwelling house and choice building lots, all of which will go at bed-rock prices, for cash.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-5wt-ly

Was Potts Innocent?

The Silver State learns from reliable sources that the best citizens of Carlin believe that Josiah Potts, who was executed at Elko last Friday, was innocent of the crime for which he suffered death, except as an accessory after the fact. There is indisputable proof that he was at work in the machine shops on the night of the tragedy which resulted in the death of Faucett and that the Master Mechanic at the shops was with him much of the time that night. It is supposed that when he went home between two and three o'clock in the morning he found Faucett dead and assisted in disposing of the body.

Faucett disappeared on the night of January 1, 1888. Subsequently the Potts family left Carlin and a family named Brewer moved into the house which they had vacated. January 5, 1889, before it was known that Faucett was dead, Mrs. Brewer, in a communication to the Elko Free Press stated that the house which she occupied was haunted, that at times the ghost stalked across the kitchen floor, hammered on the door and tapped on the headboard of the bed, but in the cellar he held high revels and out the highest capers. The nightly repetition of these noises led Brewer to investigate and on January 29th the mutilated remains were found in the cellar.

In this matter-of-fact age the theory that the noises referred to by Mrs. Brewer, were caused by supernatural agencies, will not of course be accepted as correct, and the idea will suggest itself that persons, other than the Potts, knew that the body of Faucett was concealed in that cellar, and that these persons, for some purpose, wished to frighten the Brewers and cause them to vacate the premises.

After Dark.

The above entitled most thrilling and sensational melodrama will be presented at McKissick's Opera House next Tuesday night. The New York World in referring to its production in that city with the same cast, scenery, etc., says:

"It is a long time since New York has seen as successful a production of a melodrama as was given last night at the People's Theater. If applause that shook the rafters, and a pleased expression on every auditor's face can be taken for a criterion, 'After Dark' could easily be kept on the stage for a year. The cast was an excellent one. Wm. A. Brady, J. W. McConnell, E. L. Walton, Laura Biggar, and Lillian Lee, all coming in for just praise. Bobby Taylor, a host in himself, captured the audience in the fourth act. The London bridge scene, the raid on the gambling house, the concert hall scene, and the railway tunnel act were produced in a very elaborate manner."

The Marker Water Suit.

In speaking of the probable result of the decision in the Marker water suit at Wickenburg, the Elko Independent says: This decision settles the matter for the present, and the only recourse the petitioners have is to take an appeal to the Supreme Court. Whether they will do this or not is a question; and even if they do, it is quite probable that the matter will be held in abeyance until the next meeting of the Legislature when, owing to the opposition to the law as it stands, it will no doubt be repealed. We think this disposition of the case final, and also think it doubtful if an attack on the constitutionality of the Act would have been resorted to, if the people of Elko county had not taken prompt measures to be represented at the opening of the case on the 23d of April last by attorneys, one of whom, Mr. Grummer, we understand, was the first to adopt that line of defense.

Teachers' Examination.

The examination of teachers closed yesterday, and first-grade certificates were granted to Misses Lottie J. Mapes, Ida Mapes, Sarah Wright and Kittie Linn, and to Messrs. W. C. Hancock and W. E. Barney.

"Hello! Hello! Hello!!!"
"Well, what is it?"
"How is your mother, this morning?"
"Very much better; she had a real restful sleep last night; she is almost rid of her night-sweats, cough and nervousness, and is growing quite cheerful. How grateful we all are to you for that bottle of medicine!"
"Don't speak of gratitude. What does the doctor say?"
"He says he never saw so wonderful a change in such a serious lung trouble. He still thinks we are giving his medicine. I don't like to tell him." "Never! He's an old friend, you know. I'm sure your mother will get well now; but you won't forget the name of the medicine, will you?"
"Never! Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are household words already, and it has come to stay. Do come and see what a miracle it has brought already!"
"Will. Good bye!"
"Golden Medical Discovery" has cured severe, lingering coughs and arrested Consumption, or Lung-sore, in thousands of cases after doctors have failed and other medicines have been tried and abandoned as useless. The "Discovery" is guaranteed to benefit or cure in every case, if taken in time and given a fair trial, or money will be refunded.

—Of the People on—

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890,For the purpose of electing delegates to the said
State Convention the Primary Election to be conducted in compliance with the laws of the State and the instructions of this Committee.The following test will be required of each and every voter at the said Primary Election:
"I am a citizen of the State and will support the nominees of the Republican party."The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:Resolved, That this committee reaffirms the State and National Republican platform of 1888, including the declaration that "the Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money" and that it "condemns all efforts to demonetize silver."Resolved, That the persistent neglect of Secretary Windom to increase the coinage of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month, coupled with his attempt to influence Congressional legislation to perpetuate silver demonetization, is a shameful violation of the silver plank of the National Republican platform, an attack upon the rights and interests of the miners, farmers and workers of the land, and an act of party perjury that should call for his retirement from the councils of an Administration which is pledged to help and not to hinder the demonetiza-tion of silver.Resolved, That the Republican party of this State is in favor of free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver, that it holds to this principle as a test of party faith and a test of party courage, and that it will persevere in its demand for the establishment of free and unlimited coinage as the law of the United States of America, to join in electing delegates to a Republican State ConventionE. D. BOYLE, Chairman,
